

ANNOUNCEMENTS FOR SUNDAY, AUGUST 1ST

TODAY IS FIRST SUNDAY. Our First Sunday Covered Dish Fellowship Lunch will be served in Huiet Hall following this service. Please stay after church to enjoy the fellowship and the meal. Visitors and guests are very welcome.

CALLING ALL YOUTH: August 5th attend Grant Park night at the Braves Game, and the lock-in at St. Paul afterwards.

AUGUST 8TH IS CHILDREN AND YOUTH CELEBRATION SUNDAY. Look for a special Sunday School promotion for children, as well as acolyte and soundboard Volunteer Recognition.

ST. PAUL CHILDREN'S SUNDAY SCHOOL will have its 2010-2011 kickoff and registration on Sunday, August 8th, from 10:15 to 10:45 a.m. Please come to the gym to talk about plans for this year's rotations, fill out an updated registration form, and enjoy some treats! Children's Sunday School classes for children from three years through fifth grade meet upstairs every Sunday morning at 10:00, starting August 15th. We'd love to see everyone. If you've never been to Sunday School before, this is a great time to get started! For more information, email Sarah Brown: sarahblasovich@yahoo.com. Stay tuned for information about youth Sunday School classes for grades six and up, which will kick off just a bit later in the school year.

IN TUNE STUDIO, our neighbor on Boulevard (www.intunestudioatlanta.com), offers instruction in piano, guitar, bass guitar, trumpet, trombone on a variety of payment plans for children and adults. Recital each semester. The fall term begins August 9th. Contact Amy Lashley (amy@intunestudioatlanta.com or 404-889-0383) about a free trial lesson next week.

DISCIPLE I, a long term, small group bible study, will be offered at St. Paul beginning September 14th. This 34 week long disciplined study is an overview of the entire Bible. Participants will need a Bible and a copy of the study manual, Disciple: Becoming Disciples Through Bible Study. Classes will meet in the Adult Sunday School Room on Tuesdays from 6:30-9pm, and will be facilitated by Jenny Stevens. Please sign up on the bulletin board list by the Sanctuary door in the office stairwell or by emailing or phoning your intention to the office, and pay for your book by mailing your $35 payment to the office, or by placing your check clearly marked "DISCIPLE" in the offering.

THE NEW CHILDREN'S AREA IN CHESTER COMMONS NEEDS 4 rocking chairs, blankets, 1 new small bookshelf, some board and page books for very young children, and 3 bins of new soft SILENT toys. If you have suitable used items or are willing to purchase new items to donate to this area, please leave items and receipts in the office with your name so that you can receive credit on your contribution record.
