ADMINISTRATIVE COUNCIL will meet this afternoon, following this service.

FILL THE ARK FOR LENT Join congregations around the world to help end hunger and poverty in four weeks with a daily, missions giving program, to benefit Heifer International. The mission of Heifer International is to work with communities to end hunger and poverty and care for the Earth. Pick up your Fill the Ark kit (a calendar and paper bank) and fill your Ark with loose change for collection. Each Saturday night, empty your ark into an envelope or a baggie inscribed with your name and designated "for Heifer Project." Return your Heifer gifts to church each Sunday in Lent. For more information about Heifer International, see <http://www.heifer.org/about-heifer/index.html>. Thanks for your generosity.

THE 23RD ANNUAL GREAT DAY OF SERVICE is March 21st. Volunteers from Peachtree Road UMC will work with St. Paulers to perform various repair, maintenance and cleaning tasks at our church. We need your help to take full advantage of these dedicated laborers. A list of projects is forthcoming. To say you will help, contact marcusmerritt@comcast.net.

THE PHOENIX FLIES: A CELEBRATION OF ATLANTA'S HISTORIC SITES is ongoing through March 22nd. Brochures describing the sites and the dates and times of tours are available from Huiet Hall. Thanks to Marcus Merritt, who played docent during yesterday's tour of our sanctuary. We will offer tours again Sunday, March 22nd, from 2pm-4pm. The Sunday date is scheduled to coincide with an open house at the Grant Manson from 3pm-5pm. You are welcome at both events.

WELCOME OUR OVERNIGHT VISITORS College Students from three different university Alternative Spring Break Programs will have stayed at St. Paul during March. The final group expected from the University of Maryland will arrive Saturday, March 14th and will be spending the week on our third floor while doing volunteer work in the city. Thanks to Bill Ericson and Clay Davis for greeting our visitors and making them welcome.
